

Therapists for Social Responsibility

AGENDA

Sunday, March 13, 2005

12:00 p.m. lunch followed by meeting 12:15 to 2:00 p.m. (Thank you Cathy, Ray & Shauna, Jaime)

1. Welcome new members, introductions.

2. Announcements, reports, updates from last meeting:

- CEUs--please sign in and out, $10
- Therapists Speak Out (the book)
- Cathy--PsySR, Jungian Institute
- Networking with other groups: CSCSW- Jean, NASW conference, DVD sales, TPJ.--Shauna
- PSR - JFK quote and H. S. student contest. Sacpsr.org. Event is April 30th
- Book recommendation list--Mary Bisharat
- Eyes Wide Open Boots Project. $300 contributed! Still need a few volunteers for some shifts.
- Financial Structure: Through PSR, membership fee to be decided at a later time--at retreat?
- Trifold--done!
- CSUS update
- TSR/PSR October Symposium. Title like "Helping to Heal Ourselves, Our Country, Our World". Speakers? Start working on this in July?
- Other_____

3. The Video Short Project: next steps

Choosing a topic(s)

Writing the script

Production: getting actors, direction, working with Steve to film and edit

Distribution, marketing (We The Media, Sun. 8-10, Soapbox. Mon. 8-9)

What kind of committee structure will work? Who wants to volunteer to do what?

4. Retreat in Grass Valley: Sat. April 16th

For community, structure of our group, vision and goals.

5. Meeting evaluation-- Cathy

6. Closing words and meditation: Carolyn

Next meeting: Sat., April 16th Retreat, 10 to 6, 16955 Kiwi Road, Grass Valley Ca. 95949

Lunch: Ray and Shauna Extra snack food appreciated.

"Hope may be elusive in the current political time, but only hope allows us to act with dignity and strength.

And when we join together and persist, we never know what we might achieve."

--Paul Loeb

