Therapists for Social Responsibility

Therapists for Social Responsibility is a group of therapists and supporters whose vision is to create connection and community as we work on local and global social actions in areas where the psychological and political intersect. We focus on the human costs of current policies such as war, corporate injustice, cuts in services, civil rights, and harm to the environment both in our clinical work and in the actions we take to effect positive social change. We have meetings, gatherings, and workshops that include CE units and offer presentations for therapists and the public in the greater Sacramento area. We support like-minded and like-hearted social action groups and co-sponsor and endorse their events. www.therapistsforsocialresponsibility.org. ### The Sacramento County Public Law Library

The Sacramento County Public Law Library serves the bench, bar and citizens of Sacramento County. The Sacramento County Law Library system was established in 1891. Sacramento County Public Law Library is the 6th largest of California's 58 county law libraries with more than 65,000 volumes. The library is a practice library, focusing on practical materials for attorneys and lay persons. Use of the library's collection is free to all who enter the library. A team of highly skilled professional, technical, and clerical staff works together to provide appropriate resources to meet the legal research and information needs of library patrons. ### The Sacramento Philharmonic Orchestra

Our family includes a dedicated board of directors and a host of staff members, volunteers, donors and organizations that have banded together to preserve and promote great classical music in the Sacramento region. Indeed, with partnerships with the Sacramento Opera and the Sacramento Ballet; support from the Sacramento Philharmonic Orchestra Foundation (formerly the Sacramento Symphony Foundation) and the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission; and strong relationships with the Sacramento Philharmonic League (formerly the Sacramento Symphony League) and other organizations, it is no wonder that the Sacramento Philharmonic Orchestra has been widely acknowledged as the "successor" to the old Sacramento Symphony. We pride ourselves on prudent and transparent fiscal processes and have been recognized by the community as an arts organization that you, our patrons, can count on. We appreciate your support and want to welcome you to our family. Please join us in another exciting year as Michael Morgan leads us on one of his trademark journeys through centuries of great classical music! www.sacphil.org
