

JULES BURSTEIN

CLINICAL AND FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGIST

910 TULARE AVENUE ♦ BERKELEY, CA 94707 ♦ (510) 527-1152

FULL TIME PRIVATE PRACTICE

- Psychological evaluations in civil cases involving:
 - Clergy Abuse Assessments
 - Psychological Consequences of Personal Injury
 - Post Traumatic Stress Disorder
 - Sexual Misconduct in Professional Practice
 - Sexual Harassment
- and criminal cases involving:
 - Sex Offenders (including Sexually Violent Predators)
 - Crimes of Violence (including Murder)
 - "White Collar" Crimes
- Psychological evaluations and expert witness testimony in death penalty cases and death penalty appeals, 1981 - present.
- Psychotherapy with adults, couples, and adolescents.
- Have provided expert witness testimony and appeared at depositions in San Francisco, Alameda, Marin, Contra Costa, Solano, Santa Cruz, Colusa and San Mateo counties; Chicago, and New York City.
- Served as consultant to Howard, Rice, et al. (San Francisco). Asked to conduct "psychological autopsy" of Howard Hughes in connection with domiciliary litigation between the State of California, the State of Texas, and the Hughes Estate, September 1984 to March 1985.
- Volunteer Forensic Consultant, Survivors International, San Francisco. Pro bono psychological evaluations supporting petitions for permanent asylum of individuals subjected to torture in their native countries.
- Provide Professional Development trainings on Mentally Ill Offenders, Kids who Kill, Sociopathic Personalities, Sex Offenders, Battered Women and the Psychology of Trauma to probation departments throughout California (San Francisco, Oakland, Concord, Santa Rosa, Sacramento, San Diego, Fresno, etc.).
- Member of the Superior Court Panels of Psychologists for San Francisco, Marin, Alameda, and Contra Costa Counties.
- Consulting Psychologist, San Francisco Probation Department, 1982 - 1990.
- Volunteer Forensic Consultant, Berkeley Mental Health Service, 1991.
- Volunteer, Psychologists Against Violence, Alameda County. Pro bono evaluations and therapy, 1994.

RECENT LECTURES AND WORKSHOPS GIVEN

- Law, Ethics, and Personal Values: What's a Therapist to Do? Continuing Education Workshop; San Francisco, CA, October 14, 2006
- Soul Murder, Perversions in the Rectory: The Long-Term Psychological Consequences of Being Sexually Abused by Your Priest; American College of Forensic Psychology; Stanford Court Hotel; San Francisco, CA, March 16, 2006
- Child Pornography, Parental Sexual Abuse and Child Custody Decisions; Association of Family Court Mediators; State Office Building, San Francisco, CA, October 28, 2005
- Pornography and Contested Child Custody Cases; Family Court Judges; Family Law Attorneys; and Child Protective Services of Contra Costa County; City Hall Chambers; Martinez, CA, March 15, 2005
- Legal and Ethical Issues in Psychotherapy. Continuing Education Seminar for Licensed Mental Health Professionals of Marin County, San Rafael, CA, March 4, 2004
- Ethics and Psychotherapy: Balancing Legal Mandates and Professional Values; San Francisco Psychotherapy Research Group (Presidio, San Francisco), October 19, 2002.
- Sex With Patients: Malignant Narcissism vs. Love-Starved Therapist; San Francisco Psychotherapy and Research Group; November 9, 2001.
- The Limits of Privilege and Confidentiality in Residential Drug and Alcohol Treatment Programs; Horizons House (Hayward); September 28, 2001.
- Managing Violent Patients and Warning Third Parties of Imminent Harm; St. Mary's Hospital (San Francisco); July 23, 2001.
- Risk Management Strategies; Abandonment of Treatment, and Avoiding Malpractice; San Francisco Psychotherapy and Research Group; October 14, 2000.
- Using Mental Health Professionals as Expert Witnesses in Personal Injury Cases; Hastings Law School College of Advocacy; July 29, 2000.
- Evaluating and Treating Dangerous Patients; McCauley Neuropsychiatric Institute (St. Mary's Hospital), San Francisco; July 17, 2000.
- False Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse – Best Interest of the Child and the Presumption of Innocence; Northern California Family Court Services Mediators Annual Conference; Monterey; Invited Speaker: November 4, 1999.
- Hastings Law School Trial Advocacy College; served as mock expert witness in Personal Injury Trial; direct and cross-examination; San Francisco, July 13, 1999.
- Can Psychopaths be Treated Successfully? If so, how? Alameda County Juvenile and Probation Department, Hayward, May 11, 1999.
- When Does Physical Abuse of a Child Rise to the Level of Mandatory Report to Child Protective Services? Family Violence Institute, Oakland, February 25, 1999.
- Domestic Violence and Child Custody Evaluations, California School of Professional Psychology, April 1998.

- Battered Women who Kill: Murder or Justifiable Homicide? Berkeley Adult Mental Health Service, March 1998.
- The Emotional Hazards of Litigation, Hastings Law School class on Negotiation and Mediation, February, 1998.
- Power, Exploitation, and Psychotherapy, McCauley Neuropsychiatric Institute, San Francisco, CA, August 4, 1997.
- Rape Trauma Syndrome: Assessment and Treatment; California District Attorney's Convention; South Lake Tahoe, CA, June 5, 1997.
- Traumatic Bonding and Spousal Violence; Berkeley Adult Mental Health Clinic; Berkeley, CA, March 14, 1997.
- The Emotional Problems of Family Advocacy (A Program for Family Law Attorneys), Marriott Hotel, Berkeley, CA, December, 1996.
- Domestic Violence: The Corruption of Love and the Illusion of Power, California Probation & Parole Convention; Fresno, CA, October, 1996.
- Drinking, Drugs, Depression & Denial: Looking for Stress Reduction in All the Wrong Places, Hastings Law School, September, 1996.
- Crisis Counseling in Domestic Violence Situations, Traumatic Intervention Services: Walnut Creek Police Dept. August, 1996, Walnut Creek, CA.
- Psychological Sequelae of Child Sexual Abuse, Annual Convention of California District Attorneys Association, June, 1996, South Lake Tahoe, CA.
- Managing High-Risk Criminal Offenders, Ventura County Probation Department, May, 1996, Ventura, CA.
- Privacy, Confidentiality and the Treatment of Minors, Youth & Family Services, Vallejo, California, October 1995.
- Adolescent Violence: Causes, Treatment & Prevention, California Probation and Parole Officers Annual Convention, September 1995.
- Ethical Issues in the Criminal Justice System, Contra Costa County, March 1995.

TEACHING

- Adjunct Faculty, The Wright Institute, Berkeley. Teach course entitled Law and Ethics in Psychology. Fall 1997 and previously. Dissertation Committee member for doctoral students.

PRIOR PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

4/77 - 8/81 Criminal Justice Mental Health Program of Alameda County, San Leandro, CA.

Senior Clinical Psychologist with the following responsibilities:

- Intake, assessment and treatment of men and women inmates at Santa Rita Jail.
- Administer all psychological testing for the clinic.
- Involved in ongoing research and evaluation of services provided by the clinic.
- Court-ordered evaluations of mentally-disordered offenders.
- Psychological consultation to Probation Department 1 1/2 days weekly.
- Supervision of psychology interns.
- Expert witness testimony.

9/76 - 5/77 Buckelew House, Kentfield, CA.

Clinical Director of residential treatment facility for schizophrenics. Supervision of staff of ten counselors; coordination of staff training; planning and coordination of day treatment program; multiple family group therapy; intake interviews; liaison with community agencies.

9/73 - 5/75 Diabasis House, San Francisco, CA.

Psychotherapist in residential treatment facility for young adult acute schizophrenics; individual and milieu therapy; family and couples work with "significant others"; wrote grant proposals for new funding submitted to private foundations; conducted research project on evaluation of clinical effectiveness.

11/66 - 8/73 City University of New York, New York City, NY.

(9/71 - 8/73) Assistant Professor at LaGuardia College.

(11/66 - 8/71) Supervisor of Basic Education at Regional Opportunity Center. Coordinated counseling and instruction programs involving staff of 19 teachers and paraprofessionals in a university-sponsored education and job-training program for mainly minority group adults.

2/64 - 8/66 United States Peace Corps, Nigeria.

High School Teacher of Anglican Grammar School, Oke-Mesi; also worked at mental health facility in Kano, Nigeria.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- California School of Professional Psychology, San Francisco, CA. Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology. July 1976.
- New School for Social Research, New York. M.A. in Psychology. January 1972.
- New York University, New York. M.A. in Philosophy. June 1969.
- Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, NY. B.A. in Mathematics. June 1962.

AWARDS AND HONORS

- Visiting Psychologist, Stanford University Law School, Professor Anthony Amsterdam's Seminar: Criminal Law and Psychiatry. 1980-1981.
- Community Psychology Training Grant Fellow, National Institute of Mental Health. 1973 - 1976.
- Honorable Mention in Dissertation Award Competition, sponsored by the Society for Psychological Study of Social Issues. 1977.

PUBLICATIONS

- Conjugal Visits in Prison: Psychological and Social Consequences, D.C. Heath & Co. 1977.

- Diabasis: Residential Treatment for Acute Schizophrenics, California Living, October, 1975.
- General Mathematical Ability, Cowles Book Co., 1971.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- Member of Task Force on Child Sexual Abuse for CAPSAC (California Professional Society on the Abuse of Children).
- American Psychological Association.
- Psychotherapy Institute, Berkeley, CA.
- Division 41 (APA) Law & Psychology