

IF NOT NOW, WHEN?

Helping Our Soldiers, Ourselves, And Our World

Forum Presented By Therapists for Social Responsibility

When: Saturday, April 21, 2007

Time: 2 to 5

Where: Trinity Cathedral, 2620 Capitol Ave., 2nd floor, Sacramento

Moderator: Shawn Sullivan, MFT, TSR Steering Committee

Panel I : Veterans Will Share Their Personal Experiences

- coming home from war
- dealing with current world events
- transforming their struggles into positive action

- Charlie Brown, Democratic Candidate for Congress against Doolittle, 2006
- George Main, President, Veterans for Peace
- Ray Bacigalupi, MFT, TSR Steering Committee, family therapist in private practice

Q & A

Break: Drinks and Snacks Provided

Panel II: Opportunities for Action

- Nadia McAffrey, who lost her son Patrick in Iraq, on her program: Veterans Village
- Representative from Give An Hour, a volunteer program to help Vets and their families.

Now Is The Time: Taking Action

Closing Song

Cost: $30 includes 3 CEUs or $10 donation without CEUs
(A percentage of fees goes directly to services for Veterans)

Space is Limited. RSVP to Shauna L. Smith, MFT gushauna@yahoo.com or 916/447-5706

Checks, made out to TSR, may be sent in advance to Elisabeth Bower, 3431 Clemens Way, Sac. 95864.
If you would like CEUs be sure to include your title (MFT or LCSW) and your license number.

www.therapistsforsocialresponsibility.org